

Melynda Huskey, interim Vice President for Student Affairs, oversees a division of 22 offices supporting student development and success at Washington State University. Prior to taking this role she served for three years as Associate Vice President and Dean of Students. In her seventeen years at WSU she has held a variety of positions, including Assistant Vice President for Student Affairs, Equity and Diversity, conflict resolution specialist, and Director of the Gay, Lesbian, Bisexual, and Allies Program. Prior to coming to WSU, she was an English professor specializing in folklore, popular culture, and Victorian fiction; she received her Ph.D. in English from the Ohio State University. Dr. Huskey's education and career have been spent entirely in land-grant institutions, and she is a passionate advocate for the land-grant mission and tradition. Her research interests include student self-determination, cultural competency, and personal narratives.
